

How to help your child

Subject: Drama

-	How to help your child
Year 7	Please encourage your daughter to participate in extra-curricular Performing Arts clubs. These can be in or out of school. Performing Arts clubs enables students to develop their confidence, creativity and social skills which are vital for being successful in Drama lessons. Encourage your daughter to develop their creative skills in their free time; this could be role-playing, writing a script, drawing a costume or set or choreographing a Dance. Ask your child what their Achievement Grade was from the previous term, and what their Teacher feedback was. Discuss how they can make sure they are implementing this feedback in their lessons in order to improve their progress this term. Watching Drama programmes or films, as well as going to the Theatre can enhance students' aspiration and develop their cultural capital. Encourage students to read scripts of plays in addition to reading novels. Some ideas are: The Railway Children Play and The Lord of the Flies.

Year
8

Please encourage your daughter to participate in extra-curricular Performing Arts clubs. These can be in or out of school. Performing Arts clubs enables students to develop their confidence, creativity and social skills which are vital for being successful in Drama lessons.

Encourage your daughter to develop their creative skills in their free time; this could be role-playing, writing a script, drawing a costume or set or choreographing a Dance.

Ask your child what their Achievement Grade was from the previous term, and what their Teacher feedback was. Discuss how they can make sure they are implementing this feedback in their lessons in order to improve their progress this term.

Watching Drama programmes or films, as well as going to the Theatre can enhance students' aspiration and develop their cultural capital.

Encourage students to read scripts of plays in addition to reading novels. Any of the Mark Wheeler Educational plays are beneficial to Year 8 students.

Year
9

Please encourage your daughter to participate in extra-curricular Performing Arts clubs. These can be in or out of school. Performing Arts clubs enables students to develop their confidence, creativity and social skills which are vital for being successful in Drama lessons.

Encourage your daughter to develop their creative skills in their free time; this could be role-playing, writing a script, drawing a costume or set or choreographing a Dance.

Ask your child what their Achievement Grade was from the previous term, and what their Teacher feedback was. Discuss how they can make sure they are implementing this feedback in their lessons in order to improve their progress this term.

Watching Drama programmes or films, as well as going to the Theatre can enhance students' aspiration and develop their cultural capital.

Encourage students to read scripts of plays in addition to reading novels. Some ideas are: Jane Eyre and The Play That Goes Wrong.

Year
10

Encourage your daughter to respond to teacher feedback, making improvements to their work and catching up on anything missed. This is vital for both practical and theoretical elements of the course.

Encourage your child to spend time revising from their exercise books and revision guides. Talking to your child about their learning in the subject and testing them on their knowledge will help them to commit it to their long-term memory. Students need to revise both Blood Brothers and their live review on a weekly basis.

Read through the GCSE Drama specification on the OCR website, to better understand the course requirements.

Encourage your daughter to perform their roles to you and the family to develop their confidence and performance skills.

Watching Drama programmes or films, as well as going to the Theatre can enhance students' aspiration and develop their cultural capital.

Year
11

Encourage your daughter to respond to teacher feedback, making improvements to their work and catching up on anything missed. This is vital for both practical and theoretical elements of the course.

Encourage your child to spend time revising from their exercise books and revision guides. Talking to your child about their learning in the subject and testing them on their knowledge will help them to commit it to their long-term memory. Students need to revise both Blood Brothers and their live review on a weekly basis.

Read through the GCSE Drama specification on the OCR website, to better understand the course requirements.

Encourage your daughter to perform their roles to you and the family to develop their confidence and performance skills.

Watching Drama programmes or films, as well as going to the Theatre can enhance students' aspiration and develop their cultural capital.